

OUR PRINCIPLES AND VALUES

Coexist with differences, adopt diversity as richness

Stand at the same distance to all political parties and opinions

Have an impartial approach

Carry out efforts by staying in the checks and balances system and perspective without entering own specialization areas of the CBN members

Offer proposals and produce solutions

Develop common areas of advocacy with the “we think different, we solve together” approach

Use a unifying, positive, non-discriminative language

Take transparency as the basis in all the efforts including operations, decision-making processes and funding sources

Prioritizing gender equality in all internal governance processes and advocacy areas
